Chronicle

Bionten exudes an aura of serenity and benevolence. Her delicate features are complemented by smooth, ivory-toned skin that glows softly, reflecting her divine nature. Her almond-shaped eyes radiate wisdom and compassion, while her lips curve in a subtle, welcoming smile.

She is dressed in an elegant kimono of flowing silk, adorned with intricate patterns of golden waves and blooming lotus flowers. The colors of her outfit blend seamlessly from soft whites and pastels to rich, vibrant hues of gold and crimson, symbolizing prosperity and the abundance she brings to those who seek her blessings. Around her waist, a beautifully tied obi sparkles with delicate embroidery of cranes and pine trees, traditional symbols of longevity and good fortune.

In her hand, she gently cradles a biwa, her signature lute, its polished wood glinting in the light. The music it produces is said to guide individuals toward prosperity and harmony. Her hair is styled gracefully, adorned with delicate accessories like golden hairpins and small floral ornaments that enhance her ethereal beauty.
